EAGERLY AND ANXIOUSLY.

The President and all Washington Officials are Waiting.

CONGRESS IS VERY RESTIVE.

Secretary Long Declares the Report is Not in Washington—Some Doubt Expressed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Washington, March 19.—President McKinley, members of the Cabinet and of both branches of Congress, all officials in Washington and the public generally are eagerly and anxiously watching and waiting for the report of the naval board of inquiry which will set forth the cause of the explosion that wrecked the battleship Maine and perhaps fix the guilt or the innocence of the Spanish people.
For several days the statement has been persistently made that the report, or a portion of it, would be in the hands of the president today. Secretary Long declares it is not here, and all that can be learned is that the administration expects to have it in a few days.

This may be true, but there is good reason to believe that the president will know what the verdict is sooner than "in the course of a few days."
The message of the president is not likely to go to congress until the last of the coming week, and in the meantime congress is very restive. The reports that the administration favors a further trial of autonomy in Cuba meets with general indignation.

HIS EXCELLENCY.

Very Good Play to Very Good House.

Flowers for Cam Bailey.

The Edwin A. Davis Company presented "His Excellency," a three-act comedy drama, to a large audience at the opera house last night. The company had a local attraction in Cam Bailey, which, aside from the merits of the play, would have filled the house.

"His Excellency" and the Davis Company made their first acquaintance here. The play was presented by them for the first time last night. For a first night's performance it did well. As the players become accustomed to each other any little roughness that might have been apparent last night will be smoothed off. The play is full of clever lines, and seemed to be just what the crowd wanted. Special interest was naturally centered in Cam Bailey. His specialties were very clever. He was recalled several times, and after one appearance was presented with a handsome bouquet.

The company goes from here to Gastonia. It may possibly give Charlotte a return date. If so, another large house will greet it.—Observer.

The Skating Carnival.

A large crowd was present at the skating rink last night to take part in the skating carnival. In addition to the home skaters there were parties from Reidsville and Burlington. Manager Bogart tells us that it was the most successful carnival ever held here. Music was furnished by the brass band. Two arc lights were put in for the occasion.

The prizes were awarded as follows: Best gentleman skater, pair of bicycle skates—Geo. Banks.
Best lady skater, pair ladies ball bearing skates—Miss Julia Pearce.
Best trick skater, pair Raymond clump skates—James Pearce.
Prettiest costume, Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen—Miss Hallie Hall.
Most comical costume, pair Raymond clump skates—Mr. Sharpe.
In the cake walk the cake was awarded to Comodore Morgridge and Mr. Sharpe.

Free Concert.

The Brookmann orchestra intends to give a concert in the court house next Friday night and probably Saturday as well. It will be assisted by other talent of the city. A. H. Alderman, Dr. John Wheeler and J. M. Rees compose the committee on arrangements and program.

Tickets, or invitations, can be secured from members of the orchestra, free, any time after Tuesday. The plan is to have the people turn out en masse and see what the orchestra is doing.

A collection will be taken to finish paying the orchestra out of debt. Full particulars and program later.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., March 19, '98.
Miss Mabel Montgomery, of Greensboro, who has been visiting in High Point returned to her home today.

Misses Leak and Pepper, two charming young ladies, of Kernersville, are visiting the Misses Alexander.

The Asheboro train was delayed several hours yesterday in consequence of the engine and tender jumping the track on the switch near the scales.

Mrs. Hammer, wife of editor Hammer, of the Asheboro Courier is visiting in the city.

J. Wray returned last night from Lexington where he has been attending court.

Rev. R. P. Troy, of Greensboro, is attending the Christian Endeavor convention today.

Miss Laura Worth, of Guilford College, is attending the convention.

Miss Mamie Bays, of Charlotte, is here reporting the convention for the Charlotte and Raleigh Observer.

Rev. F. E. Clark, president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, arrived last night and will remain until the close of the Christian Endeavor Convention, which is now in session. He organized the first Society and is now president of nearly 2,000,000 young people enlisted in that work.

The first Christian Endeavor Society was organized February 2, 1881, in a Congregational church in Portland, Maine.

The State Union of North Carolina is young, only four years old, but it is well organized, and the membership numbers about 4,000.

Rev. A. D. Thaeler is as yet a very young man but makes a most excellent president and it is due largely to his earnest efforts that North Carolina has such a well organized Union.

The Convention is being most hospitably entertained. Revs. M. A. Kelsey and W. R. Lowdermilk deserve much praise for their excellent management in this connection.

Rev. Dr. Clark made a few very helpful remarks to the convention at the opening of the morning session. He will be heard with pleasure a number of times today and tomorrow.

Mrs. M. E. Cartland, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in North Carolina, presented greetings from that organization to the convention at the morning session.

The report of the secretary and treasurer, who is unable to attend the convention in person, was read by Rev. H. E. Rondthaler, and was a most encouraging report.

Much interest is being manifested in the International Convention which is to meet in Nashville, Tenn., July 6-11.

Memorial Services.

The memorial services in honor of Miss Frances E. Willard will be held at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the First Presbyterian church, which was kindly offered for this purpose, and the public will please note the change of place, which was made necessary by the fact that the auditorium of the Methodist church is not in a condition to be used.

Col. J. E. Mowbray, of Philadelphia, who is pleasantly remembered here as the gentleman who delivered the polished address some few months ago, Keeley Institute when it was removed to its present location, will be present and deliver the address of the occasion. The public is cordially invited to be present.

GETTING USED TO WAR TALK

"The People Understand That it Means But Little."

OPINION OF SECRETARY GAGE.

The Administration Will Not Recede. Vesuvius at Navy Yard—It is Believed She Has a Report.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Cleveland, March 19.—Secretary Gage frankly declared today that he does not believe the present complications with Spain will lead to war. He further said:

"The people are getting used to this war talk and understand that it means little or nothing. There is no possibility of war if it becomes a question of financial resources. Our government is equal to any emergency which may confront us.
"The president will doubtless ask for and get any appropriation wanted. Our credit abroad is the best, and our business interests have not been affected by the possibilities of war."
WILL NOT RECEDE.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 19.—Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt says there is and will be no recession from the stand taken by this government towards Spain.

The administration, he declares, has mapped out its plans and will carry them out, ordering the Massachusetts and Texas to Hampton Roads, where they will be joined by the Brooklyn, Columbia and Minneapolis for the better protection of the Atlantic coast. He says the intimation that Spain didn't like the fleet being at Key West had nothing to do with it.

HAS SHE GOT IT?

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 19.—The dynamite cruiser Vesuvius, en-route from Key West to Washington, reached the navy yard shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. It is expected that her guns can be prepared in a few days. Some people believe that she carries a preliminary report from the board of inquiry.

Gold in Abundance in Alaska.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Seattle, Wash., March 19.—Letters received here from Rapart City, Alaska, establish beyond doubt that very rich gold finds are being made on the American side. In the order of richness of finds Little Minook Creek comes first, Hunter and Hoosier Creeks following, but as yet little work has been done on these two. Highly gratifying results reported from Little Minook.

To Deliver Addresses.

Hon. John W. Daniel, of Virginia, and Judge Armfield, of Statesville, have been invited to deliver addresses at the unveiling of the monument to Senator Vance at Asheville. Senator Daniel accepts, but Judge Armfield has been compelled by ill health to decline.

Special Commissioner Klopsch has received a dispatch from Commander Booth Tucker, of the American division of the Salvation Army, tendering congratulations upon the commissioner's relief work, and offering to send him a corps of nurses. Mr. Klopsch has referred the matter to Consul General Lee.

FARMERS' MUTUAL.

Carolina Benevolent Association Organized Here.

The Guilford branch of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance company met in the court house this morning at 11 o'clock, President Berry Davidson in the chair. The meeting was held for the purpose of receiving the report of its secretary and treasurer.

The report being read, the president announced that Capt. Sid. B. Alexander, of Charlotte, was present and would introduce and explain the plans of the Carolina Benevolent Association.

Captain Alexander, in a few well chosen words, advocated the feasibility of this plan of life insurance. He was followed by J. S. C. Carpenter, who gave an outlined history of the plans.

Ex-Chief Justice James E. Shepherd, the general counsel of the Carolina Benevolent Association, followed Mr. Carpenter. He said he knew little about life insurance except in a legal way and that he had accepted the office of General Counsel because he felt he could vouch for its solvency. Capt. Samuel A. Ashe was expected to address the convention but was called away on the noon train by a telegram. The remarks of all the gentlemen were received with closest attention and a favorable impression seemed to have been made on the large crowd present.

CALLING FOR ENLISTMENTS.

Men Wanted Between Eighteen and Thirty-Five.

THE EXPENDITURE INCREASED.

Reported at Key West That Spanish General Pando Has Been Captured.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 19.—The navy department is preparing to send out several thousand notices to be posted in the principal towns throughout the United States calling for enlistments for the navy. The advertisements will call for men between eighteen and thirty-five years of age except ordinary seamen between eighteen and thirty. The navy department is experiencing the most difficulty in securing seamen.

EXPENDITURE INCREASED.

Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Mar. 19.—The Czar, according to a special dispatch from St. Petersburg, has authorized an increase of the ordinary naval expenditure three million roubles for six years in addition to the general grant of ninety millions for naval purposes recently announced.

GENERAL PANDO CAPTURED.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Key West, March 19.—It is reported here today that General Garcia has captured the Spanish General Pando. The wildest excitement prevails, and Cubans think this will bring Spain to terms.

DEATH OF CAPT. H. L. HOOVER.

He Passed Away This Morning at Six O'clock.

Capt. H. L. Hoover, who was stricken with paralysis last Monday, died at 6 o'clock this morning, at the residence of Mrs. Payne. Although Captain Hoover lingered nearly a week, at no time was much hope entertained for his recovery, as he was seldom conscious.

Capt. Hoover graduated at Washington and Lee University with honor and selected teaching as his profession. When the war opened he left teaching and joined the famous "Stonewall Jackson Brigade" and because of his bravery was made a captain. After the close of the war he returned to teaching and for many years was a professor at the Washington and Lee University.

Too close and constant application to his duties in the university impaired his health and he was compelled to resign.

He then entered into the insurance business and continued in it until his death. He was an old school Virginia gentleman, kind hearted, gentle, courteous and a man known for his Christian piety. He never evinced any fear of death and his child-like faith was beautiful to see.

Although Capt. Hoover had only been in Greensboro a short time, he leaves behind a large circle of warm friends, who mourn their loss.

He was 63 years old and leaves a wife and one daughter, and was a consistent and loyal member of the Presbyterian church.

Rev. Dr. Smith conducted a short service over the body this morning before it left on the noon train for Staunton, Va., where the remains will be interred in the family burying ground.

Raleigh News.

The Governor pardons James Jimson, convicted of murder in the second degree, two years ago, in McDowell county, sentenced to six years in the penitentiary. The reasons for the pardon are remarkably strong.

The city of Raleigh tonight decided to build for $4,000 a tram-road to Stone Quarry, for use in hauling stone for street improvement. The cars on it will be operated by horse power. Work on it begins tomorrow.

The penitentiary directors today adopted a resolution calling on the North Carolina Senators and Representatives to use all efforts to secure the continuance of the penitentiary as a prison for Federal prisoners.—Col. Olds.

The French Demands in China.

London, March 18.—At the cabinet council yesterday there was an anxious discussion of the new developments of French demands in China. The Duke of Devonshire, Lord President of the council, has decided to postpone his intended departure for the Riviera. All the newspapers this morning comment on the impossible nature of the French demands.

More Accurate Service in Greensboro Than Baltimore

Mr. C. M. Vanstony had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be repaired. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vanstony sent the old lenses with an explanation to the oculist who had given the prescription and in reply received the following:

The Marquis de Alta Villa must think with some chagrin of how he wasted a challenge on Senator Mason before Senator Proctor got back from Cuba.

When the report of the board of enquiry is made no one can cast the aspersions upon it that it was formulated with undue haste.

Can it be possible that the rather copious offers of warships are in any measure due to the inalienable fondness of man for seeing somebody else's head punched?

The attitude of Spain and the United States at present is very much like that of Tommy and Bobby, each of whom is anxious to run away, but instead of doing so tells what he will do if the other steps on his sore toe.

Governor Ellerbe, of South Carolina has announced that in the event of war he will himself lead the militia of the Palmetto state. This is not as it should be.

The Hon. Benj. Tillman has an unsated thirst for gore and a large volume of compressed air that are riotously demanding a free field and no favors.

Women should be very careful how they quarrel with their husbands. A Wisconsin woman who quarreled with her husband immediately went into a trance and remained in it for twenty days.—Wilmington Star.

Why should not the woman have her inning? It has been the custom of the hubby to seek forgetfulness of these little marital felicities by methods much less commendable and dignified.

General Miles might choose his comparisons with more skill at a time when the people of the north and the south, as a whole, are forgetting the old sectional prejudices. Referring to the possibility of a conflict with Spain the general trusts, as a soldier, that "if there is war there will be no Bull Runs to begin with, but an Appomattox." That is not a brilliant way of putting it.—Norfolk Landmark.

Possibly not brilliant but characteristically Milesian. The only brilliant thing about Gen. Nelson A. Miles is his uniform and his estimate of his own abilities.

The Caucasian asks in a high and quavering treble, not once but repeatedly, why the democratic journals of this state favor the confirmation of Judge Ewart. The answer is easy. Judge Ewart is quite as good a man as is likely to secure the nomination. But that is not all. Judge Ewart has shown himself capable of speaking out in meeting against the attempt of the northern wing of his party to foist an outrageously partisan measure upon the people of his state and section. The democratic journals are not among those whose custom it is to forget obligations even to an enemy.

There are many rumors of a gigantic bond deal being planned behind the curtains. It is said that the amount in contemplation is $400,000,000. Certain capitalists are trying to force this government to buy Cuba's liberty for her. Is this the infamous influence that has prevented this government from recognizing the belligerency of Cuba and stopping the war in the interest of humanity and liberty?—Caucasian.

Anthropology has it! The populist imagination always sees something loom just behind the curtain, black and menacing to populism the initiative and referendum and to all good and wise things generally. But the Caucasian is here mistaken. It is not a paltry $400,000,000. It is $400,000,000,000,000 and this sum will be used not only to buy Cuba, but the domains of the Sultan a large slice of China, an option on Timbuctoo and a block of patriotic populist politicians.

SATURDAY'S LITERARY CHAT.

[All books and magazines mentioned below may be had at Wharton's book store.]

Stanley J. Weyman's latest tale, "The Castle Inn," is a story of Pitt. His preceding serial, "Shrewsbury," now published in book form, is a romance of the reign of William and Mary, with a background of Jacobite intrigues, tavern scenes and secret meetings. The narrative is told by one of Lord Shrewsbury's dependents, Richard Price. But just as Anthony Hope fails to support his autobiographic narrative in "Simon Dale," notably in the scene between Barbara and Carford, so Weyman is obliged to recite an interview between Lords Marlborough and Shrewsbury that took place while his hero is in France. Of this hero one critic has very justly asserted (in Literature):

Richard Price, whose fortunes, as related by himself, we are here invited to follow, has not even a redeeming vice. "Everything which another man would have hidden, everything the publication of which would have made another man hang himself," herodotus, like Boswell, with unblushing candor. He never hesitates to betray his trust under the compulsion of fear, he cannot throw himself on the mercy of his benefactor without concealing half the truth; what fills him with misery is not the impending trouble to his generous patron, but to "foresee that I should choose the evil and eschew the good, and to wish it otherwise and be powerless to change it," he has no control either over his feelings or his countenance, and in the face of danger can only scream and struggle and shriek prayers for mercy. When a saboteur of noble birth takes us into his confidence and narrates his career we listen with sympathy and satisfaction, but to be buttonholed by a miserable base-born clerk, who has no object in life but to save his own skin, who is the butt of women and the tool of knaves, is a sore trial to our knightly spirit. We roundly dub him a craven and a white-livered poltroon; but he is also in much danger of becoming what in these degenerate days is still more exasperating—a bore. He certainly would be a bore in the hands of any one less capable than Mr. Weyman. And even to that ingenious romance the poltroonery of Richard Price presents difficulties hard to overcome. Fortunately, in these spacious times, plots such as Ferguson's and Barclay's have but an academic interest. We are much more concerned with the plots of Mr. Weyman and Mr. Conan Doyle, and we must protest that in the plot here unraveled Richard Price plays a part for which he is quite unfitted. Though he does nothing to show either courage, capacity or fidelity, and a good deal to show the opposites of these qualities, he becomes the object of special favor at the hands of the great Duke of Shrewsbury—the "King of Hearts." Secretary of state at the time of the "assassination plot" against the life of William III—and is taken into his permanent service. Though he is not only a coward, but is devoid even of that simple amiability which sometimes redeems meanness of spirit, he wins through no effort of his own the love of a good woman, the niece of Robert Ferguson, "the Plotter."

King William only steps across the stage of this romance twice and then in a trivial way. But the Duke of Shrewsbury is presented in magnificent stature. Mr. Weyman almost makes him a greater peer than Marlborough.—Philadelphia Record.

TO RAISE ARMY TO 104,000.

An Administration Bill to be Pushed in Congress.

Washington, March 17.—The army department has completed the preparation of a bill providing for the placing of the army on a war footing for the strength of 104,000 men. The bill will be introduced in the house by Representative Hull, chairman of the house committee on military affairs, who, it is expected, will urge it vigorously, inasmuch as it is an administration measure. The basis of the bill will be the three battalion organization, provision being made to increase each one of the existing companies from 75 men to 250 men.

Thief's Fun With a Locomotive.

Perth Amboy, N. J., Mar. 17.—John Shanapay stole a locomotive yesterday. He was fleeing from pursuers who wanted him for trying to brain the tug boat skipper for whom he works. He jumped on the locomotive near Perth Amboy, and with wild hurrahs mocking the frightened cries of the yard men, opened the lever. Down the track flew the engine. Telegrams cleared the tracks from Port Reading to Metuchen. Engineer Bidding followed on another locomotive, but Shanapay suddenly reversed the lever and his engine reversed backward. Bidding, too reversed just in time. Then Shanapay went forward again, and finally stopped and walked back to Port Reading and surrendered.

Tonsillitis

Tonsillitis Can Be Cured.
Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy will do it.

Eagle, Iredell Co., N. C.,
December 10, 1897.
For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial trouble which, every time he took cold, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsillitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything and could take no solid food. Last spring he took one-half dozen bottles of Mrs.
Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled with the Wash, and it cured him. He has not had a spell since.

TRAIN SKIRTS A WALL OF FIRE.

Exciting Flight of Flames Through Lumber Tracts.

Williamsport, Pa., Mar. 17—This city witnessed one of her historic lumber fires tonight. A spark from a Reading engine ignited a pile of lath in the yard of Ezra Canfield's Sons, at 8:30 o'clock this evening, and at midnight the flames traveled over nearly half a mile of territory. The loss at that hour was estimated at $50,000, but there are no hopes of saving the balance of the lumber.

The Williamsport express on the Reading railroad at 10:30 tonight, ran along a wall of fire for a quarter of a mile. The telephone poles on the opposite side of the track were ablaze, and the rails were red-hot in places.
The lumber piled in the entire yard before the fire is estimated to have aggregated $75,000.

OAK RIDGE MATTERS.

Interesting Talk on Various Topics for Telegram Readers.

Correspondence Telegram.
Oak Ridge, N. C., March 18.

A commission has been given Bureau Bros., of Philadelphia, for making the bronze plate for the monument to the bugle boy. This plate will be larger than any one at the Battle Ground, being 2 feet, 10 inches, by 3 feet 6 inches. It will contain in relief the figure of a bugle boy in Continental uniform, mounted upon a horse, and will cost $100 in Philadelphia. This will make the entire cost of this monument about $225.

The following inscription will be placed upon the plate:

Gillies,
Light Horse Harry Lee's Bugler Boy.
"Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori."

"Erected by the Literary Societies and Students of Oak Ridge Institute, May 6th, 1898, to the memory of the gallant Gillies who fell under the swords of Tarleton's dragoons near Oak Ridge, N. C., Feb. 12th, 1781, a noble sacrifice to his own generosity and for his country's freedom."

The alumni of Greensboro and Oak Ridge have been quite liberal in their contributions and have manifested a noble interest in this undertaking. It was therefore decided to arrange for a more expensive plate than was at first contemplated. The relief figure was not thought of at first. This will be, so far as we can learn, the only monument to a boy of the Revolution, and it seems quite fitting that the noble sacrifice of this young life should be commemorated by the boys. We are unable to learn whether Gillies was a native of this state or not, but it is no matter as he fell in the cause of freedom. The program for the unveiling ing of this monument has not yet been arranged. The other schools of the county will be invited to participate, and we hope to have a pleasant occasion. Friday, May the 6th, has been selected as the day for the ceremonies as this is the anniversary of the formation of the Battle Ground Company.

The students of Oak Ridge Institute have been invited by President Clewell, of Salem Female Academy to spend one day at that celebrated institution this spring. April 23rd has been selected. The young men of the societies will furnish a program consisting of declarations and debate, and the young ladies of Salem Female Academy will give a recital. H. L. Powell, of Surry; W. L. Criddlebaugh, of High Point; P. T. Barnhill, of Enfield, and A. D. Ivie, of Leaksville, have been selected as debaters for the occasion; Messrs. H. L. Coble, of Tabernacle, and Peter W. Kynper, of Valderrstock, Siberia, to present declamations.
There will also be a gymnasium performance by the young men.

There are thirty young men in the graduating class this year. The Profs.
Holt are receiving applications for stenographers, book-keepers, and salesmen almost every day. They have been unable to fill the demands made on them in this respect during the last six months, but have succeeded in placing quite a number of valuable men in the business circles of the state.

The base ball club starts tomorrow for its first game. It is in fairly good condition and will know on its return more about its weak and its strong points than it has yet been able to develop. It has generally lost to the University even when it had a better team, which, however, has not been lately. The University grounds are said to be difficult for visiting teams to play upon to advantage, and of course a high school team is at many disadvantages. However, the team hopes to make a creditable showing.
It will play John-Hopkins team in Greensboro April 9th, and a splendid game may be expected by the lovers of the sport. The new uniforms came yesterday and are very handsome.

The Lamp
that lights the way to Good Health is a bottle of the greatest of all blood purifiers—
Johnston's Sarsaparilla
QUART BOTTLES.

This great blood purifier and nerve tonic, cures diseases by removing from the system, the conditions which produce them. It expels all poison and impurity from the blood. It acts upon the nerves as a stimulant, particularly upon those nerves belonging to the great organs of the body; therefore, it causes the heart to beat with greater force, the lungs to take in more oxygen and to expel more carbonic acid; it induces the kidneys to send off more of the poisonous ex-cretions from the blood; the bowels to have more regularity and healthfulness in their action; the sweat glands to throw out more impurities.

Our illustrated book of 36 pages will tell you what is the matter and what to do. It is free for the asking. Quart bottle, $1.00.

Expert Stenographers.

At the civil service examination held here yesterday two artists in the stenographic line—Miss Fodie Buie, the well known stenographer from the State Normal and Industrial College and Miss Nannie C. Comes, stenographer at the Finishing Mill and now a member of the Reporting class at the Normal, stood the examination.

These young women have minds of the very first order in this particular line and we predict for them success. We deplore the fact that in order to get compensation commensurate with their skill these young women should have to seek positions elsewhere. North Carolina cannot afford, no matter what the avocation, to lose its best talent.

The Boston's Coming.

The Boston baseball boys are expected to arrive here next Monday on the early morning vestibule.
